

SpillSmart General Purpose Drum Cover Pads have been designed to rapidly absorb pump drips, dispensing spills and overspray messes. Whilst keeping your drum tops in 'Tip Top' condition, these pads will assist to prevent drips and spills from hitting the floor whilst decanting liquids and remove the need to keep messy rags on hand.

They are premium quality, Heavy Duty and highly absorbent, with first class wicking and retention performance. These super thirsty pads will absorb most common industrial liquids including Oil, Fuel, Coolant, Degreasers, Solvents and much more!

Speak to your EnviroSmart Distributor for further information about this product and other quality absorbent pads in our range.

Designed for:

- Absorbing drips and spills on Steel Drum tops whilst pumping and / or decanting liquids.
- Keeping steel drum tops clean and in good condition.
- Fluids absorbed include Oil, Petroleum, Ethanol, Kerosene, Brake Fluid, Mineral Spirits, Turpentine, Water Based fluids and all non-aggressive liquids *not recommended for corrosive liquids.
- Warehousing and storage area's containing Steel Drums of oil and non-aggressive liquids.
- Automotive industry, Mining & Construction sites, Government maintenance and warehousing sites, Manufacturing Industries

Features:

- Compatible with Oil & Hydrocarbons, water based fluids and non-aggressive liquids
- Heavy Weight, high absorbency with fast wicking and retention performance
- Colour coded Grey for easy identification for General Purpose use
- Available in single units and packs of 10 and 25

ES-PPGP-400-DC 60cm Diameter - Heavy Weight